Pattachitra painting is a traditional Indian folk art of Odisha that's been around for centuries. It was originally used for rituals and as mementos to pilgrims.

The paintings of Odisha can be divided into three broad categories from the point of view of medium, i.e. paintings on cloth or 'Patta Chitra', paintings on walls or 'Bhitti Chitra' and palm leaf engravings or 'Tala Patra Chitra' or 'Pothi, Chitra'.

ENDANGERED FOLK ARTS OF INDIA

Endangered Folk Arts of India – International Roadshow, an Exhibition and Workshop is our attempt to create global awareness about Indian Folk Art and place them on the global map, where they belong.

OUR STORY

India is a host to over 50 traditional folk arts. Some of these beautiful folk arts have been passed on from generation to generation for over 3000 years.

However, except for a handful, the rest of them are on the verge of extinction.

International Indian Folk Art Gallery, Australia has been working hard to promote and uplift traditional indigenous artists and help revive these beautiful folk arts.
